

Highly ranked legal firm and legal practitioners and excellent client service.

| Chambers and Partners Europe 2022

Our “highly qualified, clear and practical” legal team is once more highly ranked in Chambers & Partners Europe, one of the world’s leading providers of ratings and recommendation of legal firms.

The guide highly recommends our firm for being “widely respected acting on cross-border acquisitions, the establishment of Cypriot entities and corporate reorganisations”. It praises the firm for offering “impressive capabilities in complex, high-value international and Cypriot disputes, strength covering debt recovery, international arbitration and fraud claims”, and for being particularly experienced in refinancing transactions, project financing and acquisition finance, involving banks, investment groups and private clients.

Our Senior and Managing Partner, Stavros Pavlou, is “an excellent lawyer and expert” and is ranked as a top tier excellent legal practitioner, with “extensive experience in commercial litigation, banking disputes and enforcement proceedings”.

Partner-Head of Litigation, Mr Chrysostomos Nicolaou, has been individually ranked for acting on financial disputes and arbitral award enforcement proceedings.

Lia Iordanou Theodoulou, Partner-Head of Corporate Finance, joins the rankings being an expert on cross-border matters and financial matters such as acquisition finance, refinancing and lending mandates.

We are proud of our Partners, legal and support staff for this achievement. We will keep adding real value to our clients’ business, even in difficult times, while managing complexity with swiftness, strategic thinking and accuracy.
